

Noel Bernal brings a wealth of leadership experience and a deep commitment to public service to Main St. Public Financial. With over a decade in executive leadership roles across Texas and Colorado, Noel has a proven track record of driving fiscal responsibility, innovation, and strategic growth within public organizations. His dedication to the public sector workforce led to the founding of Main St. Public Financial, where his mission is to empower public employees with access to alternative financial investments.

Noel's commitment to public service was recognized when he was awarded the Texas City Management Association's Administrator of the Year Award in 2022 for his significant contributions to local government in Texas.

Education and Professional Involvement

Noel holds both an undergraduate degree and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Texas Pan American. He is a Credentialed Manager through the International City/County Management Association (ICMA), a Certified Public Manager (CPM) through the William P. Hobby Center for Public Service at Texas State University, and a graduate of the Senior Executive Institute at the University of Virginia. Noel's professional involvement includes chairing the ICMA Technology & Innovation Advisory Board and the TCMA Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Allies Task Force. He also serves on the boards of the Local Government Hispanic Network (LGHN), the Texas Municipal League Intergovernmental Risk Pool (TMLIRP), and the Institute for Building Technology & Safety (IBTS).

Connect with Noel Bernal on LinkedIn

Why Main St. Public Financial?

Under Noel's leadership, Main St. Public Financial aims to redefine the financial landscape for public sector employees, providing access to vetted alternative investments that align with their financial goals. By leveraging strategic relationships with financial companies and offering expert educational resources, Main St. Public Financial acts as a trusted partner in helping public sector professionals navigate the complexities of today's financial world.

With a focus on transparency, trust, and relationship-building, Main St. Public Financial is dedicated to supporting the future workforce and strengthening the communities that make our society resilient.